4. Consultation Process-Procedures (including policy development, program development and implementation of funds distribution).

The Department of Social and Services (DSHS) in coordination with tribal governments developed a consultation process found in DSHS Administrative Policy 7.01.

This policy can be found on the DSHS website at: <http://www.wa.gov/dshs/ipss>

5. Dispute Resolution Process-Describes dispute resolution processes and outlines when particular processes may be used.

Each contract that is negotiated between the department and the Tribes should have a dispute resolution process included.

DSHS will be devising a new dispute resolution process to be included in Administrative Policy 7.01 during the next sunset review process.

It is recognized that these Plans will vary among state agencies. However, the basic policy and guidance included in these Government-to-Government Implementation Guidelines should govern the development of these Plans and be embraced by both state and tribal officials. Each state agency Centennial Accord Plan should be completed prior to the Annual State/Tribal Centennial meeting. These Plans will be included as attachments to this document and reviewed annually and updated as necessary.
